

INDOOR PROGRAMME

for 2011 / 12

Venue: 7.30 pm Rainhall Centre, Barnoldswick

---

Friday, 14th October

Why Microfossils?

Speaker: John Varker Ph.D., University of Leeds (retired)

Friday, 11th November

Miocene vegetation and climate: from the Brassington Formation of Derbyshire to global distributions

Speaker: Matthew Pound MSci. (Geology), University of Leeds

Friday, 9th December

Members Evening

John Singleton, Paul Kabrna et al.

Friday, 13th January

Life and death at high latitudes, marine biodiversity, environmental change and extinction in latest Cretaceous Antarctica

Speaker: James Witts MEarthSci (Earth Science), University of Leeds

Friday, 10th February

Death in a cold climate: Permian extinctions in Svalbad

Speaker: Professor Paul Wignall, University of Leeds

Friday, 9th March

Meteorites, Stardust and the Early Solar System

Speaker: Professor Jamie Gilmore, University of Manchester

Friday, 30th March

Strange places, the dales - the shaping of the Lakes and Pennines by huge landslips and rockslides

Speaker: David Jarman, Mountain Landform Research, Stirling, Scotland

Further information: 01282 813772 and www.cpgs.org.uk

Craven & Pendle Geological Society: founded 1990